Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works.

Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities.

Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.

Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

Laughter Aids Digestion

Laughter is one of the most healthful exertions; it is of great help to digestion. A still more effectual help is a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. If you should be troubled with indigestion give them a trial. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

Mrs. Hood Entertained Her Sunday School Class

The Fidelis class of the Baptist Sunday school, comprising a membership of nearly fifty young ladies and matrons, was the guest this afternoon of its teacher, Mrs. E. Van Hood. Annually Mrs. Hood entertained her class and the parties are always the loveliest of the year, the talented hostess sparing no pains to carry out in the most minute detail the special feature decided upon for her entertainments. In consequence the affairs are anticipated events and rarely is a party given in the city that exemplifies more careful preparation than the ones at which Mrs. Hood entertains her class.

For this afternoon China was featured. The entire lower floor was decorated in symbols suggestive of that country, the decorative scheme being both instructive and pretty. Mrs. Hood graciously received her guests at the front door and receiving with her were Mrs. Bunyan Stephens and Mrs. Julia E. Stephens. In the reception hall punch was served by the hostess's daughter, Mrs. Lew Lyons of Des Moines, Iowa. The table on which the punch bowl rested was covered with a handsome cloth imported from China. Brown baskets filled with red chrysanthemums gave a delightful floral touch to the reception hall and other rooms.

For the occasion Mrs. Hood invited Miss Johnson, a reader of ability who is in the city for the winter, to tell the story of a Bible Woman. The class for five years has helped to support a woman in the missionary field in China and the story was particularly appropriate and vividly Miss Johnson pictured the customs of China, the life of the boys and girls and the work accomplished in one day by a Bible woman. Her remarks were supplemented by a talk from Dr. Hertzog, who has done church work for some time in the Orient. A number of charming musical selections further added to the pleasures of the afternoon.

A salad course with tea and ginger was served and assisting the hostess were Mrs. B. H. Seymour, Miss Frances Tarver and others.

Mrs. Clark Entertained for Miss Hybart

Miss Bessie Hybart, an attractive visitor from Mobile, Ala., was the honor guest at an informal theater party last evening given by her host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark Jr.

The guests on this delightful occasion were Misses Hybart, Collier Clark, Blair Woodrow, Hester Dewey, Mary Burford, Onie Chazal, Martha Kate Rentz, Messrs. Wiley Burford, Charlie Chazal, Frank Harris Jr., Clarence Meffert, James Bartley, John Batts, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clark and Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Peek.

From the Temple the jolly crowd repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, where a tempting refreshment course of coffee and Christmas cakes was enjoyed. Punch was served when the guests assembled to go to the Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clyatt returned last evening from Chiefland, Levy county, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Clyatt's sister, Mrs. S. C. Clyatt, who died at her home in Otter Creek on Tuesday morning. A husband and two children survive Mrs. Clyatt. Another brother, Mr. L. J. Clyatt, of Bartow, accompanied the Ocala members of the family to the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Duval and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hocker and family were visitors to Leesburg Tuesday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mote.

Mrs. C. E. Winston accompanied Mr. Winston on a business trip to Wildwood today, motoring through in their car.

The Children's Home Society OF FLORIDA

"Florida's Greatest Charity"

This society has provided for during the year just closing over Eight Hundred Orphan Children of Florida. These helpless, homeless and friendless little ones have been cared for just as lovingly and with every attention that they would have in their own homes, and most of them have been placed in permanent homes of their own with their foster parents.

To carry on this great work, which the Star considers one of the most noble works of the state, has cost a great deal of money and the society is short several thousand dollars. The society is very anxious to close the year out of debt.

Won't you send some money to the treasurer—whatever you can spare, from 25 cents up? Won't you do it now? Better still, won't you write the society and tell it that you will pay so much a year, payable quarterly, and send the first quarterly payment with your letter?

One of the handsome little books, issued each year, containing a full report of the society's accomplishments will be mailed you if you write for it.

You who have of this world's goods, send a small portion of it to those who have not. This space is not paid for by the society. It is a part of the Star's aid to this noble work.
